Script 1:

“I’m calling you because I’ve come across the biggest breakthrough in personalized nutrition in the last 25 years. I’m working with one of the world’s experts in (longevity, omega 3, women’s health, network marketing etc). I want you hear this the way that I heard it. Are you free (date) (time)?”

Script 2:

“Oh my goodness, you’re not going to believe what I’ve discovered. A Scandinavian company that is disrupting the entire supplement market. They are bringing in a revolutionary product that will change the health industry and move the dial on public health in North America like nothing else before. You’ve got to see this the same way I did. In the meantime, I want you to meet some people who are very successful. You’ve got to make the time, this is about as big as it gets. If you wait, you’ll lose. I’m extending a special invitation to you for (date) (time)....can you make it?”
